

Seeking Super-Star Visitor Services Interns

The US Fish & Wildlife Service's Seney National Wildlife Refuge in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan is seeking outgoing, creative, & passionate interns to join next season's staff.

Find more information at www.fws.gov/refuge/seney

Essential

Education  Pursuing a degree in or are a recent graduate of a natural resources field	Passion for Nature  Desire to improve ID skills & teach others about natural history	Public Speaking  Comfortable speaking in front of groups & assisting people with questions	Availability  May to August August to October May to October Full Time & Weekends
---	--	---	---

Required

A valid driver's license & personal vehicle are required. Interns will drive a 14 passenger bus - no special license is needed.

The Job in a Nutshell

Bloomin' Qualities

How to Apply

- Applicants must submit:
- a cover letter
 - dates of availability
 - unofficial school transcript
 - resume
 - two professional references

Send materials to Sara_Giles@fws.gov - or - Seney NWR
Attn: Sara Giles
1674 Refuge Entrance Road
Seney, MI 49883
906-586-9851 x10

Pay & Benefits

$400/week
+ housing